London: The Party season is in full swing - especially for these 250 orphans. The tables are laden with good things and there's fun to follow - with "Archie Andrews" determined to make himself heard. SOUND.

Of course, any party's liable to become a riot when Norman Wisdom appears - With the famous comedian Surrounded by his young admirers, the occasion becomes a bun fight, Norman having a real fight to get some tea before leading a seasonal sing-song in which everybody joins. SOUND.

And to round off a wonderful party; there's an appropriate gift to remind the youngsters of happy hours with the stars.

Facing the New Year with Spring in his step - Mr Joseph Griffiths - a retired schoolmaster, greets his 100th birthday with his usual two-mile stroll.

Among the many callers at his Wembley home was film starlet Jill Adams - who was soon learning the secret of long and happy life. Sound
