

SIR WINSTON HOME IN GOOD FETTLER

30

The Prime Minister said good bye to M. Laniel as he left the aircraft at Heath Row. The French Premier is recovering after his unfortunate illness at Bermuda. He flew on to Paris after the plane had refuelled. Mrs. Eden, Mr. Butler, Mr. Selwyn Lloyd and the French Ambassador were among the party welcoming Sir Winston, whose report ~~on the Bermuda meeting is keenly awaited by the nation.~~

You had a good flight back, Sir Winston?

T.P.M.'s report on the Bermuda meeting, its results & in my view is a highly important & would be keenly awaited by the whole nation.
