

C-48250

MAJOR TRYON

The old mail coaches with their horses and armed guards are things of the past, and today at Easton we are honouring the intemity and devotion to duty of the men of the Royal Mail and of the Post Office, who rendered to the country this fine service.