

NEWS FLASHES: STOP PRESS:

Issue No.1007..23..10..1940.
Title: Who's that knocking at my hear.
Track: Ditto Car Show.
Discs: 406.360.
Lines: Stagg.
Voice: Mellor.

In happy America the Motor Show competes for public interest with the war and the Presidential Election. The manufacturers have come up to scratch with some very shapely models.

Designers can't think up major improvements every year, but they have an uncanny flair for altering gadgets and bodies and so making your last year's car look as if it had come off the junk heap.

They're all ready for air raids.

By yourself you may prefer an open car but if you have company you just naturally don't want her to get wet, do you ?

Track: Young Eagles.
Discs: 555.232.254. U.S.Army parachutes.

The American Army has made it's first experiment in mass parachute jumping. When those tactics were invented by Russia some years ago U.S. Generals, like our own pooh-pooed them. Events have changed their minds. It was soon demonstrated that the troops have now learnt all there is to know about the business.

Track: Easy Living.
Discs: Nil. Dionne Quins .

The Dionne quintuplets were in their Sunday best and sitting round the radio on the day Princess Elizabeth broadcast to the children of Britain and the Empire. Yvonne tuned in.

Emily pointed out the Princess in the signed Royal family portrait
This one is Annette.

This is Marie.

The quins are now nearly five years of age; just old enough to know that, thousands of miles away, a Princess was talking to them and to millions of children all over the world.
