

HOME VOICES THRILL SEAVACS OVER

RADIO.

Issue No...1009...30...10...1940.
Title: Happy Day.
Discs: Nil..Nat Sound.
Lines: Stagg.
Voice: do.

GV. 7 1 2

D.S.B.

A talk with Mum and Daddy right across the Atlantic. It was a thrill for the parents to hear their children's voices, just as if they were back at home:

Mother talking from London: "Mother and daddy are here and want you to do all the talking. Can you hear me dear?"

Daughter Elaine replies: "Yes, thank you."

Mother: "Now you will write weekly, won't you? Have you heard from Mr. and Mrs. Miller yet?"
Elaine Yes

Elaine: "No, we answered at our proper home - we're staying at the Seaman's Institute."

Mother: "Oh, that's not my daughter."
Yes it is, Mum, you're Elaine

Announcer: "You're Elaine, aren't you?"
to mother to Elaine

Elaine: "Yes."

Announcer: "I think Mrs. Hill, she's a little shy because the studio's full of people."

Mother: "Alright darling; you talk to Mummy. Have you written to us yet?"

Elaine: "Yes, we sent a letter and so did Pam - has it reached you yet?"

Mother: "No ~~dear~~, it hasn't yet. It's not like Elaine."
dear

Elaine: "I expect it'll soon come through."

Mother: "Yes, I hope so, did you have a good voyage?"

Elaine: "Yes thank you, I was only sick once."

A father to son Tony: "Now how've you enjoyed yourself so far?"

Son Tony: "Oh! lovely."

Father: "Have you seen any of those cowboys and Indians yet,"

Tony: "No."

Father: "You thought you were going to see a lot, didn't you."

Tony: "Ah! but I am."

Father: "I hope of old boy" "I say, Danny and the cat send their love to you. How do you like American food?"

(Continued)

10168

Tony: Oh "Lovely."

Father: "You really do, do you?"

Tony: "Yes, but I've got out of the like of having ice-cream. I hate it."
Father: Oh!

Another father to daughter: "Hello Rona, how ~~are you?~~"
Rona: Hello Darling, in a minute?
"Alright."

Father: "Is Neville with you?"

Rona: "Yes, he's going to talk in a minute." Kids

Father: "And how are you all feeling?" ~~blow whistle~~

Rona: "O.K."

Father: "'O.K!!' That sounds a bit American. You've been over there two months now haven't you?" ^{I say}

Rona: "Sure!"

Father: "Well what do you think about it?"

Rona: "Jolly nice. ~~I've been to Radio City."~~

Father: "Mummy's going to have a word. I'll come back." ^{It's jolly nice is it Rona. I've been to Radio City. Mummy says. Rona yes. I've been to Radio City.}

Mother: "How are you all darlings?" ^{Allen}

Rona: ~~Announcer - Talk to us~~ "Alright." ^{Allen}

Mother: ~~Allen - snort~~ "Do you still snort like a pig?" ^{Allen}

Rona: ~~Announcer - Do it again~~ "Allen, Mummy."

Mother: "Who's that?"

Rona: "Allen."

Announcer: "He's a big boy here - 5 years old."

Mother: "Hello, Allen."

Allen: "Hello!"

Mother: "Do you still snort like a pig?"

Allen: "Snorts."

Announcer: "Now you'll have to say goodbye, Allen say it old boy, do you want to say goodbye to your Mother and Daddy?" ^{Goodbye}

Children: "Goodbye, Dad, Mummy."

London. Elaine, you may as a matter of fact like to know is sometimes called Jimmy by her mother & father so don't let it surprise you

Mrs H. Are you there Jimmy? Mother & daddy are here & want you to do all the talking. Can you hear me dear

Elaine Yes thank you

Mrs H. Now you - well, won't you have you heard from us yet
Mulla yet

Elaine - No, we answered at our proper home - we're staying at the Seaman's Institute

Mrs H. Oh, that's not my daughter

N.Y.A. You're Elaine, aren't you

Elaine Yes

N.Y.A. I think Mrs Hill, she's a little shy because the studio's full of people

Mrs H. Alright darling, you talk to Mummy - ~~Is Pam here with~~
~~you?~~

Elaine ~~no she didn't come~~

Mrs H. Have you written to us yet

Elaine Yes we sent a letter & so did
Pam - has it reached you yet

Mrs H. No dear it hasn't yet. It's not like Elaine

Elaine I expect it'll soon come though

Mrs H. Yes I hope so, Did you have a good voyage

Elaine Yes thank you I was only sick
once

Mrs H. Have you had any of our letters yet? We sent you ~~we sent you~~ few by airmail

Elaine No, I expect we will get them

when we reach Mrs Mellow

W.A.S.

Wanda A. Alright ~~is~~ Anthony there?
Here his father Mrs Louise Peden & somewhere I think we're going to ask you something about a dog

Mr R. Hello, Tony

Tony Hello daddy

Mr R. How are you?

Tony Alright thank.

Mr R. Hows Lesley?

Tony She's very well thank you

Mr R. Rosemary & Richard

Tony They're well well too

Mr R. They're not with you dear are they?

Tony No

Mr R. Give them my love & remember everybody. How how're you enjoyed yourself so far

Tony oo! lovely

Mr R. [Have you seen any of those cowboys

& Indians yet

Tony no.

Mr R. You thought you were going to see a lot didn't you

Tony Ah! but I am!

Mr R. I say Denny & the cat send their love to you. How do you like American food

Tony lovely.

Mr R. You really do, do you?

Tony Yes, but I've got out of the like of having ice-cream. I hate

it.]

N.Y.A. How news come to 3 children
the Whittaker Rona Greville & Allan
5 Are their parents there Mr?

London A. Yes. Mrs + Mrs Frank Whittaker are both here waiting to talk to the children

Mrs W. [Hello Rona, how are you, -
Rona Alright

Mrs W. Is Neville with you.

Rona Yes, he's going to talk in a minute

Mrs W. And how are you all feeling

Rona. OK!

Mr W. OK?! That sounds a bit
American. You've been over ~~there~~ there 2 months now haven't you

Rona. Sure!

Mr W. Well, what do you think about
it

Rona. Jolly nice. I've been to Radio
City

Mr W. Mummy's going to have a word
I'll come back.

Mrs W. How are you all darlings?

Rona. Alright

Mrs W. Have you made lots of friends at school - - -

Allan. Mummy.

Mrs W. Who's that?

Rona. Allen

N.Y.A. He's a big boy here - 5 years old

Mrs W. Hello Allen

Allen Hello!

Mrs W. Do you still snort like a pig?

Allen - snorts }

Allen does it again

Mrs W. do ^{it} another time Allen

N.Y.A. Want to do it again Allen Alright, he doesn't want to do it again

Neville Hello, hello

Mrs W. Is that you Neville?

Neville Yes!

Mrs W. How are you doing old boy?

Neville Alright thanks

Mrs W. I say can you make that funny clicking noise like that?

Neville makes noises

Mrs W. Do you see each other often
Neville ~~yes~~

Neville Yes we do.

N.Y.A. { Now you'll have to say goodbye Allen say it old boy, do you want to say goodbye to your Mother & Daddy
Kids - Goodbye Dad, Mummy