The Senussis are a tribe who inhabit the Western Desert district into Lybia. The present Senussi Chief whose headquarters were once in Italian Lybia was so maltreated by Graziani in his vicious 'cleaning-up' measures, that he is now violently anti-Italian. It was interesting therefore to see the spontaneous reception given him by those Italian Lybian prisoners. In the usual tribal manner of welcome - sheep (a camel was too expensive!) were slaughtered at the moment of his arrival. There was no suggestion that the prisoners should greet their visitor with any special reverence - their welcome was purely spontaneous - and shows that as "protector of Islam" Musso isn't doing a very good job among his ~~made~~ ^{also}.

(The Senussi Chief is Sayed Idris El Senussi)
