

035258-d

Associated Screen News
GERMAN PRISON CAMP
Somewhere in Canada

1. Closeup view of sign "PHOTOGRAPHY PROHIBITED".
2. General view of sign "LOITERING FORBIDDEN".
3. Closeup view of sign "NO PARKING".
4. Closeup view of sign "TRAFFIC PROHIBITED".
5. Closeup view of sign "MAIN GATE".
6. Semi-v. of soldiers on guard at main gate.
7. Semi-v. of soldiers on guard.
8. Semi-v. of Major Elias inspecting guard.
9. Semi-closeup view of same.
10. Top view of guards marching off.
11. Semi-pan-view of soldiers at work.
12. Angle view of guards on hill.
13. Semi-v. of prisoners at work.
14. Semi-closeup view of same.
15. Closeup view of same.
16. Semi-v. of prisoners returning to camp.
17. Semi-v. of same (cover faces.)
18. Semi-closeup view of guards loading machine gun.
19. Angle view of guards in tower.
20. Semi-closeup view of prisoners through barbed wire.
21. Top view of prisoners in yard.
22. Semi-v. of prisoners--hide their faces.
23. Gen.v. of prisoners in yard.
24. Elev. v. of prisoners in yard.
25. Semi-closeup pan view of prisoners.
26. Closeup view of prisoners.
27. Semi-v. of checking prisoners.
28. Semi-v. of officers receiving count.
29. Pan view of prisoners entering building.

Exclusive

03F2F50
b-8F2F50

Associated Screen News
GERMAN PRISONERS WAR CAMP
Somewhere in Canada

Located in the Northern Ontario wilds, exists a German prisoners-of-war camp. The largest prisoners-of-war camp in the Dominion. These prisoners, numbering approximately 1,500 are (more boys) average age around 24 years. These prisoners are considered the "flower" of the German army. They were all first-line troops and were captured in naval - military - or air force encounters in England - France - Belgium - Holland - Norway and the North Sea Atlantic. The majority of these men are air force men and parachutists.