1.	Mr Anthony Eden , Sec of State for Foreign Affairs speaking at the opening of the new Czechoslovak Institute at Grosvenor Place, London.
2.	Mr Eden reading a telegram sent by the King to President Benes at the Institute. Mr Eden Speaking.
3.	Mr Jan Masaryk speaking, the reason for these shots apart from library was an attempt to record an air raid warning which was going on.
4.
5.	Rather a lot of footage used, the reason being that although we were issued with speech copies, when Mr Eden started to speak he kicked off with an entirely different speech altogether.

SCENE NUMBER	COMPLETE DESCRIPTION OF SCENES	FOOTAGE IND.	CAMERA SPEED	LIGHT COND.	LENS USED
1.	Tony Eden today open the Czechoslovakian Institute in Grosvenor Place London.
2.	Situated in the heart of London the building consists of fine rooms and offers excellent opportunities for the idea it is intended that is to associate the members of Great Britain more socially with the fine people we have in this country from Czechoslovakia.
3.	Left to right on the platform at the start of the opening were M. Jan Masaryk (Thick set and tall in a grey suit double breasted suit, slightly bald), Tony Eden (Morning dress), Sir John Chancellor (very much like Benes, but more prominent nose and not so upright in build), Dr. Benes (usually with his head raised upwards and thin lipped, also dressed in dark clothes). .....
4.	Long shot of Grosvenor Place and the camera pans to show the building. Various shots of people entering the building. Scenes of Anthony Eden, queuing up to enter the building he is to open it Various shots of the people going in.
5.	Interiors show Anthony being met by Sir John Chancellor Scenes of the four people on the platform, Shots through various apertures showing the room. Various scenes of the people listening to the speech. Various shots of people around the room. Shots of H.G. Wells. .....
6.	Lighting arrangements by Movietonews were not excellent by any means , the entrance where Tony arrived was completely forgotten and I had to rely on the sashes fired by the press.
7.	Only one portion of the room was lit and it was impossible to get light on to the many celebrities who were present. Also the rooms in the building were worth a few feet for cutting into the speech
8.	but the lighting day lighting was too poor to allow me to attempt anything of this nature.
