THE PRIME MINISTER PAYS AN INFORMAL VISIT TO HIS OLD REGIMENT.

The Prime Minister pays an informal visit to the Battalion of the Royal Scots Fusiliers which he was Colonel and commanded in the last war.

The Prime Minister informs them he has just heard the news of the fall of Bengazi and whilst paying a visit to the Navy tells them the news also.

At another station not connected with his old Regiment, the Prime Minister sees one of our tanks, of the type used most effectively against the Italians in Africa, and tells the crew how successful these have been against the Italians in our African campaign.
