

NEWS FLASHES: STOP PRESS.

Issue No. 1050..24..3..41.

Title: All The King's Horses,

Track: Safari..Here To State...Invitation To Happiness.

Discs: 503..449..552.

Lines & Voice: Stagg.

A complete camel corps, captured from the Italians, was inspected by the newly-appointed governor of Cyrenaica, on his tour of prison camps. The Libyan Natives are quite happy to be where they are, oppression behind them and now under the benevolent British rule of General Maitland Wilson.

The Eagle Squadron is in action. It was formed by Americans who wanted to have a crack at the enemy and came here to join the RAF. Most of them were pilots already. In the last few weeks they've mastered Military aviation, and they're now flying Hurricanes at an Air Force fighter station. They may be the advance guard of American manhood. While they are fighting, U.S. bombers may soon be escorting Atlantic convoys. The forces of democracy are on the wing.

You never expected girls to be all-in wrestlers, but here are Gladys Gilliam and Patsy Miller. I don't know which is which, and as far as I'm concerned you can have both of them.

(CROWD) Patsy's the winner. It was a sporting contest and there's no ill-feeling now - but they haven't told Gladys.

U.S. GIFTS COMFORT RAID HOMELESS.

Issue No. 1050..24..3..1941.

Title: Imitation Happiness.

Track: Ditto.

Discs: 555.

Lines: Stagg.

Voice: Mellor.

A well-known dockland settlement is the last link in the chain of mercy reaching from America. Bundles for Britain has become an everyday phrase. Here's one of the places where the parcels are received and their contents given to unfortunate people who need them.

When they were bombed out of house and home most of these folk lost everything but the clothes they wore. Kindly Americans showered gifts, not only of old garments but of new - and there are some quite fashionable young toffs in the East End in consequence.

(3 Scenes Without Voice)

(CU FITTING HAT) There's no lease -and-lend arrangement about this. I'm sticking to it.

I'm all right now for a weddin', funeral, Ascot - anything you like.

Thousands are now thanking generous Americans for their timely gifts.

34. (Washington, D.C.) Wrestling headlines: A couple of fair sex grunt and groan artists
38. are featured: Gladys Killen Gilliam, a female hercules and Cow girl Patsy Miller, who rassled steers before she took to the ring. Hold your seats as the gals bar no holds in a canvas-slapping brawl that's not exactly drawing room stuff. Again, it's an opportunity to turn over the show to our sound man. For to best enjoy this shindig, is hear it as well as see it. Take it away, Al!
And Cowgirl Patsy Millerx cops the match.....but don't go home yet...Killen Gilliam is madder than a hornet's nest!!

03430-C