

PLYMOUTH PLUCK WINS ROYAL PRAISE

Issue No. 1051....25..3..1941.

Title: Annapolis

Track: If I Were King.

Discs: 555.446..343..555.

Lines: Stagg.

Voice: Do.

Going into the West Country Their Majesties spoke to girl workers of the Devonport dockyard - examples of woman-power already harnessed to the war effort - forerunners of a million more.

Some typically fine Indian troops stationed nearby were inspected by their King Emperor.

The royal standard flew at the mast of a destroyer aboard which Lord Louis Mountbatten attended his cousin the King. Lord Louis recently commanded a destroyer (the Kelly) when she was towed home, almost sinking, from the Danish coast. Kelly is now in commission again.

Commander Hulewicz, of the Polish Navy, was invested with the D.S.O.

At Headquarters Their Majesties talked with members of the C - in - C's staff. That same night Plymouth suffered its first Blitz - an episode in the Battle Of The Atlantic, the battle ~~that~~ the Navy must ~~not~~ win.
~~miss~~
