

CAROL STATES HIS PLANS FOR FUTURE.

Issue No. 1067..20..5..1941.

Title: Heart of Arizona.

Track: Ditto.

Discs:

Lines: Stagg.

Voice: Meller

EX-KING CAROL IN BERMUDA.

After his arrival in Bermuda - exclusively featured in Paramount's last issue - King Carol accorded us an interview at his hotel. Here he stayed before his voyage.

In adjoining hotel quarters was Madame Lupescue - cause of much Rumanian anti-Carol feeling while he was still on the throne. Nine-thousand miles from their country the two seek tranquility.

Speaking for British Paramount News the ex-King ~~stated his reasons for making~~ gave us his reasons for making ~~discussed with his present host~~ his future home in Cuba.

FOR AIRMAIL ONLY

037801-C

THE EYES AND EARS OF THE WORLD
LUPESCU IN BERNAUDA

EDITORIAL OFFICES
244 WEST 43RD ST.
NEW YORK CITY

Title:
Pg:
Eff:
MAGAZINE
TELEPHONE
MEDALLION 3-4
CABLE ADDRESS
P A R A M N
74.

1. TITLE.
2. The United States liner Excambion brings to Bermuda Rumania's ex-king and his companion, Mademoiselle Lupescu. Carol's friend through 16 stormy years, Lupescu leaves the ship alone, and does not receive the official welcome given Carol. The red-haired Jewess travels ~~under~~ as Mrs. Helene Lorenz. Her Known to America as Hagda Lupescu, it is revealed that her name is really Elena, and in official records filed after landing in Bermuda she gives her age as 32.
6. Pet dogs come ashore, after the long trip from Lisbon. Carol and Mme. Lupescu fled Rumania and found temporary haven in Spain, ^{where} starvation rations reduced Lupescu.
9. Ex-king Carol disembarks and is accorded royal rights by British officials. Now 48 years old, Carol renounced his secession to the throne in 1925 and went into voluntary exile with Lupescu. Five years later he regained his throne, fleeing when Hitler moved on the Balkans. Carol plans to live in Cuba, and in a Paramount News interview explains this choice....

