A Boeing Clipper arrived in Lisbon on its way from the States. The great ship is the first of three purchased from U.S. for the England-America airmail. She carries nearly 6,000 gallons of petrol and can fly non-stop 4,700 miles. A fine airplane of peace, to speed Atlantic mails.

Holyrood House, home of the Scottish kings, has had a distinguished foreign visitor, escorted by the youngest daughter of the Prime Minister. Miss Mary Churchill acted as guide to the historic scenes, to Professor Gerbrandy, Premier of the Netherlands.

(LV TOWARDS) The Dutch statesman was in Edinburgh to address the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, at whose London church he now worships.... Our next story comes from Canada. Let's go.

Yes let's go to the Dominion, where the best artists in the country entered a poster competition to launch the 130-million pound War Loan. Entries produced some striking examples of Canadian poster art.

A.J. Casson executed the winning design.

A substantial cheque as first prize in the competition was presented to the artist by the Earl Of Athlone. If Savings Schemes and War Weapons Weeks over here are any indication Canada will soon raise the money.
