

PARAMOUNT LOCATES RADIOLOCATOR MAN.

Issue No. 1076...23..6..1941

Title: The Buccaneer,

Track:

Lines: Stagg.

Voice: Do.

Stagg cu ck o. -

Mr. Watson Watt is the man who perfected the Secret Eye - the ether-wave method of detecting raiders before they reach the coast.

Mr. Watt's Speech:

"When the very first aeroplane from France landed near Dover Castle, a very great and wise journalist tore up the Captions of ~~his~~ ¹⁰ staff and wrote:

while 'BRITAIN NO LONGER AN ISLAND'

(CU) "When the Nazi loudspeakers blared from Berlin, I had the privilege of gathering ~~together~~ around me a team of brilliant and enthusiastic and tireless scientists who did the work while I ~~talked~~ ¹. We set ourselves the task of tearing up that caption, and ~~of~~ writing,

'BRITAIN AN ISLAND AGAIN'

SV "But what Lord Northcliffe saw was that, every inch of sky ~~was now~~ coastline, every patch of green a possible landing beach, every patch of cloud a smuggler's cove up which the King's enemies might run unseen, their evil craft. Every inch must be watched, ~~but~~ ¹ now by the radiolocator.

cu "We want more men in the back room. We want more girls on the front beach, to join the legion of skilled and enthusiastic members of the WAAF to do this job who complain only if they are sent to parts of the country where the supply of German bombers is poor. We want recruits under the banner of the Golden Cock which crows, not in fear, when the enemy approaches

as small