Matfield Court is for Bermondsey women who've been bombed out, and if Fred Astaire wants a new partner - how about it ?

Brave, hard-working East Enders, they're having a richly deserved spell in the country. They were visited by the Minister of Labour. Ernie Bevin was the only man there and he's not the man to lose a good opportunity.

In batches of 30 women will come to the home for a rest. See how they rest. The house was presented by the War Relief Society of America.

Now Russia's in the war we must all bear a hefty burden.
