Seventeen-year old King Peter of Yugoslavia has arrived in Britain and is staying with his mother Queen Marie at her Huntingdonshire cottage. Like other rulers exiled by Nazi conquest he will help to carry on the fight. His first plan is to form a Yugoslav airforce, starting with the 300 compatriot airmen already in this country. British decorations for valour may come his way if King Peter himself acts as an air navigator, as he is qualified to do. We welcome him to England and trust that before long he will be restored to his throne.

Restored after his exile is the Emperor Haile Selassie. Chieftains and tribe-leaders went to Addis to avow loyalty to the monarch who now returns after five years. In his quiet bearing Haile Selassie was in sharp contrast to his primitive followers.

(SV SEVERAL DEMONSTRATING) The Emperor was the first ruler to be ousted by the Totalitarians. He is back on the throne - a good omen.

Jacqueline Cochran, first woman to ferry a Hudson bomber from America, has met the RAF. The boys, about to take off for attacks over France, were proud to show what they can do when they have the tools.

Jacqueline also met the WAAF's.

Being neutral, Jacqueline can't do much over here, but as she says
