This story was made to show the ministry council which took place after Admiral Darlan had been Hitler. Different library scenes were added to show what is believed to be the concessions made by German to France this comprising:

1. (a new card for writing between the two zones of France. Seven free lines).
2. (Actual line of demarcation put up above Paris liberating the actual occupied zone)
3. (Liberation of a big number of prisoners. To this has been added several scenes of Huntziger decorating the wounded soldiers liberated via Switzerland--- this story I made six months ago but Putal at the time did not want to send--- it was restituted to me lately by the National reel). Also is added to this story several scenes of life in Marseilles which make for you some good library scenes.
