The Duke of Kent posed with the Earl of Athlone and Princess Alice in the grounds of Government House, during his visit to Ottawa. His Royal Highness is in Canada to inspect the Empire Air Training Scheme. The Earl of Athlone, brother of Queen Mary, is of course Governor-General.

The flag of the Royal Canadian Air Force flies at Uplands Field Training Centre. To Canadians and to some men from Australia, who will all soon be fully fledged war pilots, the Duke conveyed royal good wishes.

Now some Americans. Two thousand are already in the Air Force. Six thousand more march with the Canadian army. The Duke inspected the planes they fly in their training. The aircraft were lined up ready for a display.

(CONTROL TOWER) The Duke saw the expert flying of the men whom the Empire scheme is sending against Hitler.

American boys in Britain's service! Canada trains volunteer pilots from across the border -- recruits for the Royal Canadian Air Force! American fliers of fortune are among the instructors; Whitey Dahl, who flew for the Spanish Republic and was under sentence of death in 1937. But he's still very much alive, and has just been married. Of the 8,000 Americans in the Dominican's armed forces, about 2,000 are in the air force. They're itching to pay off Jerry with British bombs!
