Without the least fuss Mr. Attlee announced the birth of a genuine new order, repeating here the main parts of the Free World charter drafted by Churchill and Roosevelt.

ATTLEE'S BROADCAST:

" ... their countries seek no aggrandisement, territorial or other.

"They will endeavour, with due respect for their existing obligations, to further enjoyment all states, great or small, victor or vanquished, of access, on equal terms, to the world which are needed for their economic prosperity.

" They desire to bring about the fullest collaboration between all nations in the economic field, with the object of securing for all improved labour standards, economic advancement, and social security.

" After the final destruction of Nazi tyranny, they hope to see established a peace which will afford to all nations the means of dwelling in safety within their own boundaries, and which will afford assurance that all the men in all the lands may live out their lives in freedom from fear and want."
