

SOVIET CINE JOURNAL NO. 69

(July 19th)

---

Battle scenes.

Interrogation of prisoners.

German planes burning.

Factory at work.

Harvesting.

Building anti-tank defences.

SOVIET CINE JOURNAL NO. 70.

(July 22nd)

Increasing resistance of Soviet troops

Village burning

Plans of campaign

Trench mortars

Soviet officers and men

Bringing in a suspected spy

Soviet artillery

Work on the agricultural front

Women and children helping with the harvesting

Parachute troops training

SOVIET CINE JOURNAL NO. 71.

(July 23rd)

Stalin at a military review

Soviet troops for work behind German lines

Artillery, machine guns, barbed wire, etc.

German plane crashes

Factories at work

Care of soldiers' children

Training of recruits and motor cycle troops

SOVIET CINE JOURNAL NO. 72.

(July 27th)

Soviet aerodrome

Tanks

Battle scenes

Bringing in prisoners

Factories at work

Oil boring and storing

Women sewing for the Red Cross

Nurses

A.R.P.

Fire fighters putting out incendiary bomb

SOVIET CINE JOURNAL NO. 73.

(July 30th)

Soviet military headquarters

Tanks in action

German tanks destroyed

Factory and agricultural work

SOVIET CINE JOURNAL NO. 74

(July 31st)

Harry Hopkins arrives at Moscow; is met by U.S. Embassy staff, Lozovski and Stalin

Marshal Budienny at military review; grants request to General and son to be sent to the front.

Prisoners brought in.

Tractors at work on the agricultural front.

Railway engine repairs.