1.	This was a press show for journalists & still men. A passable story had it been laid on for the news reels. This school is for the training of P.T. instructors for distribution throughout the army. The school tries to introduce novelty in its methods of training such as team work with logs weighing anything from 180 to 200 lbs. Shots of the men running in battle dress. These are the same men as shots previously running in shorts. Approx, 200 men & officers took part in this display. For further information see attached leaflet issued from the school.
