quite a good time together, mitexaxpartyxyeexkeen went over mut to the house, had a party and that sort of thing, took some of the lads along, golly good.

SCU C.F. Aldenice:

Over in Belfast in Northern Ireland is his father, Mr. fxF. Alderdice. Hallo Dad. Hallo George, is that you, Yes. IIII give you your shout Tirst. I was gust going to say you sound very Irish. Oh why shouldn't I? I dont know why. Well inter Mannay and iss are listening in to you children

Yes? And all your pals are listening in tooxing including Ranx and All your pals are listening in tooxing in ling and now. Including Ranx Sam and I suppose they are in England. Sam's gone across. Has he? I believe San fability has got his wings. Jeffrey was at home and has got his Jeffrey

Did Uncle Percy get the George Medal? Yes Uncle Percy got the G.M. alright. I was very pleased to hear that, How did you get to know that? so soon? Well I got one of the letters, it only took a fortnight to get inrangh here but I got another and it took five months. Five months: I it must have gone to the bottom of the Sea and up again.

the dickens

I dont know where/it got to but it took five months, anyway. (laughter) Tell me is Dick Kirby with you yet ? No Dick washed out axkit about three weks ago. Isn't that appity, I'm very sorry to hear that. But he's going to get another chance. They seem to treat you very well over there. Oh you're'telling me. What about those peaches in Georgia. Oh they're mostly over now. They've had quite a season. I thought the peaches in George lasted a long time. They are not the same peaches. Ah that's a different kind of peach a stution san "ste all set to to and they sure do lost mighty
