

ALLIED OCCASION

A CONCERT

organised by the European Service of the British Broadcasting Corporation

PROGRAMME

JERUSALEM (William Blake) - - - - - Parry

Composed at the end of the last war this has become an English National song for ceremonial occasions.

THE LONDON PHILHARMONIC ORCHESTRA

(Leader : Reginald Morley)

MEMBERS OF THE ALEXANDRA CHOIR

THE POLISH ARMY CHOIR

Organist : BERKELEY MASON

Conducted by MALCOLM SARGENT

PARASSIA'S SONG (The Fair at Sorotchintsi) - - - - - Mussorgsky

KIRGHIZ SONG - - - - - Moscolov

SONG OF YOUTH - - - - - Shostakovitch

PEOPLE, ARISE ! - - - - - Pokrass

The last of the three songs by modern Soviet composers expresses the invincible spirit of the U.S.S.R. in the present struggle.

ODA SLOBODSKAYA AND ORCHESTRA

GRAND POLONAISE BRILLANTE in E Flat, Op. 22 - - - - - Chopin

MOISEIWITSCH AND ORCHESTRA

THE BALLAD OF FLORIAN THE GREY - - - - - Moniuszko

SOLDIER'S SONG - - - - - (Polish Traditional)

BONNIE DUNDEE - - - - - (Scottish Traditional)

THE POLISH ARMY CHOIR

(Conductor : Lieut. Kolaczkowski)

SONG OF FAITH - - - - - John Alden Carpenter

A contemporary work, typically American in spirit. The chorus sing the composer's own words, and the Narrator speaks passages from the last letters of George Washington.

MEMBERS OF THE ALEXANDRA CHOIR

(Chorus Master : Charles Proctor)

THE LONDON PHILHARMONIC ORCHESTRA

Narrator : FRANK PHILLIPS

Organist : BERKELEY MASON

Conducted by MALCOLM SARGENT

BROADCASTING ARRANGEMENTS : 1 September, 2.45 p.m., in the European and Empire Services and in the Programme for the Forces.

15 NATIONS AT ALLIED COUNCIL

FILMS FOR WORLD TO SEE

Mr. Eden, the Foreign Secretary, presiding at the meeting of the Allied Council at which Mr. Maisky spoke, said resolutions would be submitted "regarding the Roosevelt-Churchill 'charter' and the supply of essential needs to Europe after the war.

The conference was held in the picture gallery of St. James's Palace. Films were taken and journalists from America and other countries were there to report the proceedings to the world.

Delegates attended from Canada, Australia, New Zealand, South Africa, Belgium, Czechoslovakia, Free France, Greece, Yugoslavia, Russia, Poland Norway, Holland and Luxemburg.

Greeks Honoured

It was the first time Russia had been represented at the Allied Council and Mr. Eden gave a special welcome to Mr. Maisky and the other Soviet delegate, Mr. Bogomoloff.

He also welcomed M. Tsouderos, the Greek Premier, and M. Varvaressor, the Defence Minister, who have just arrived in this country with the King of Greece.

"We are proud to have with us the representatives of the gallant Greek nation, whose heroic resistance has been a source of inspiration to the whole Allied cause," said Mr. Eden.

The Delegates

Those attending the conference for the British Empire were:

Mr. Eden; his under-secretary, Mr. R. K. Law; Mr. L. S. Amery, Secretary for India; Mr. Arthur Greenwood, Minister without portfolio; Viscount Cranborne, Dominions Secretary; Lrd Moyne, Colonial Secretary; Mr. S. M. Bruce, High Commissioner for Australia; Mr. W. J. Jordan, High Commissioner for New Zealand; Mr. S. Waterson, High Commissioner for South Africa; Mr. S. Lal and Mr. Frederick Hudd (India).

Delegates of the Allied countries were:

Russia, M. Maisky and M. Bogomoloff; Belgium, M. Spaak and M. Gutt; Free France, M. Cassin and M. Dejean; Greece, M. Tsouderis and M. Varvaressos; Holland, Dr. Van Kliefens, Dr. Steenberghe and M. Welter; Poland, Count Raczinsky and M. Strassburger; Czechoslovakia, M. Masaryk and M. Osusky; Norway, M. Lie and Major Sunde; Yugoslavia, M. Suteje and M. Nincitch; Luxemburg, M. Bech.

GREEK REPRESENTATIVES at the conference—
(from left) M. Varvaressos (Finance Minister), M. Tsouderos
(Premier) and M. Simopoulos (Minister in London).