At Coventry, where he toured the ruined areas, Mr. Churchill inspected the heroes of the blitz, men and women of the city's ARP services.

Amid the ruins of the cathedral, accompanied by the Mayor, the Premier was conducted by the Bishop of Coventry and the Provost.

(TANK) Continuing his tour, in another district, Mr. Churchill saw one of Britain's newest tanks. Still further afield new bombers and fighters roared overhead, ready to make the Nazis pay toll for their wanton destruction of British towns.

From test-pilot Alex Henshaw, 1938 King's Cup winner, the Premier had a first-hand report on Britain's wonderful new fighters.

And now first pictures of Mr. Churchill in R.A.F. uniform, taken when he visited No. 615 Fighter Squadron, as their honorary Air Commodore. The Premier's 14 medal ribbons include those of four wars. 80
