

BRITISH PICTORIAL PRODUCTIONS LTD.

TRAINING PILOTS FOR THE FLEET Approx. 450 ft.

AIR ARM

Learning to make spot landings alongside a moving launch

do.
do.
do.
do.
do.
do.

Landings viewed from seaplane

do.

Seaplane in flight, close up. pilot as seen from gun turret.

Seaplane alighting, view from nose.

(Steady shooting proved impossible owing to vibration)

Gliding prior to alighting & shows difficulty of making spot landings owing to smallness of launch.

Walrus being prepared for flight

do.

"bombing up" with small practice bombs.

Pilot donning parachute

Climbing aboard

Mechanics winding engine

~~W~~ Walrus amphibian takes to water from slipway.

Walrus amphibian coming ashore.

Having been bombed out of it's squadron mechanics conduct a "top overhaul" on a river bank.

A Walrus demonstrates its ability to alight on river at temporary "bombing up" with 200 pounders.

H.Q.

Bomb release board is pre-set and then functions.

DIVE BOMBING

Bombs leave rack - ~~an~~ unsuccessful attempt made to follow bombs to target.

Bombs leaving rack of another aircraft.

do.