SCENE NUMBER	COMPLETE DESCRIPTION OF SCENES	FOOTAGE IND.	CAMERA SPEED	LIGHT COND.	LENS USED
1.	Shots generally show the life of the girls from morning till to night, I had in mind the finishing shot the girl starting to undress & she turns out the light. There is a few exteriors the only ones possible as the camp in the main is
2.	a series of huts in the mud unpleasing to the eye as a concentration camp. The blond in the picture is a girl from the county of Durham & was a cashier in ordinary life & is doing this class of war work as she think's this is helping the national effort more so as she has a brother in the navy.
3.	The buses in the picture take the girls to & from the hostel to the filling factory. The factory shots in the factory, the girls are fixing detonators a very dangerous work as note
4.	the steel partions between the girls, I would suggest the shots of girls working on tanks that I recently shot would make a better factory insert. A shot or so of a stout laughing woman eating
5.	is a Mrs Brady of Birmingham who has 8 daughters in the Army and one son in the Navy. For any further information see the press cuttings returned to Mr Stegg.
