

Feb. 4, 1944

Box
11741

T: P761, NM204, P141

Bg: 242, 417, 1601

Eff:

Cameron

Martyn

Non

#46

1. TITLE: SUPER WAR BOND SALESMAN: CROSEY, SINATRA AND HOPE (NOT INC.)
2. In Hollywood, California, a golfing extravaganza with war bond sales as the objective. Bing Crosby leads off. Looking on is "The Voice", Frank Sinatra. Frank said he couldn't even caddy for Bing and for that colossus of the fairways, Bob Hope.
11. The final green.
12. Cameramen grinding for posterity.
15. The match is over and now super bond salesmen say "Let's All Back The Attack"... It's an auction with the biggest buyers of war bonds getting souvenirs -- some plain and some plenty fancy!
18. To sell more bonds Bing auctions a horseshoe worn by seabiscuit.
22. Now war bond buyers get orchids as "the voice" as the pin-up boy.
28. But the super war bond special is the "duet of the century" - from the great stage hit Oklahoma....