

YANKS PLAY HOST TO THEIR MAJESTIES%

There was a full house at the American Red Cross Mostyn Club for U.S. service men when the King and queen were received by Mr. Harvey Gibson, the Red Cross Commissioner. Mrs. ~~Harvey Gibson~~ Sloan Colt, Deputy Red Cross Sommander in Britain was introduced, and Mr. Winant and Admiral Stark were among familiar acquaintances whom the King and queen met again. The U.S. Deputy Commander in the European theatre, Major General Lee, was also introduced.

Mrs. Harvey Gibson ~~presented~~ presented several of the soldiers and sailors, and there was such a crowd that it was Puzzle, Find the Queen.

The very fine work now being doen by the Red Cross of America in providing clubs like this one thoroughly merits support of the King and queen. W
