

TITO PARTISANS TRAIN IN MALTA

Wounded in the fight against the Nazis, Yugoslav patriots have been ~~shipped~~ ^{sent} to Malta for treatment. Women are among them; ~~for~~ Marshal Tito's forces are recruited from both sexes. Instruction in all weapons used by the Allies is given ~~to them~~ ^{to partisans} while they are convalescing. Tito began with little, but ~~arms have been sent to him,~~ ^{we have sent him arms} and the ~~partisans~~ ^{patriots} are holding the fort and making things hot for the enemy till the invasion begins.

A camp has been ~~made~~ erected in Malta specially for Yugoslavs. The patriots' flag was hoisted in the commander's presence. The people of Yugoslavia have never collaborated with the Nazis, never given up the fight. The day will soon dawn when over their liberated homeland the standard will fly again.
