

DANISH HIT BACK % FIRST PICTURES GENERAL STRIKE %

~~Denmark~~ ^{Denmark} Sabotage campaign against Culmination of Denmark's

the Germans was the destruction of the country's largest armament works, in Copenhagen. ^{Vicious} ~~counter-sabotage~~ by the enemy included the ^{Burning} ~~destruction~~ of stores, ~~the~~ cinemas and film-studios. Copenhagen's celebrated amusement park, the Rivoli, was set on fire, and at the same time the Germans advanced the curfew, ~~to 8 p.m.~~ to 8 p.m.

A general strike was the answer. After four years of Gestapo oppression the Danes at last hit back. That they were able to do so effectively proves that the enemy holds the country with ~~very~~ light forces. Warships in the harbour were scuttled by men of the resistance movement. So ~~the~~ were ~~German~~ submarines. For a few days it looked as though there might be open war between the people and their oppressors.

(after tank) ~~Despite the display of force the strike~~ ~~went on.~~ There were hundreds of arrests. In the many scuffles it was inevitable that scores of Danes were killed. The situation grew more tense but it was something outside German experience ^{and} How to meet it they Nazi didn't know. In honour of ~~the~~ patriots killed
~~the city observed~~ a two-minute silence, was observed

In the end the ^{called} ~~Germans~~ ~~modified~~ the curfew and ~~ended~~ off the counter-sabotage campaign, ~~climbing down to get~~ ~~the status quo.~~ It was a blow to their pride that Denmark, Hitler's model protectorate, should ~~have~~ ^{openly show} ~~shown~~ ~~sympathy~~ ~~and solidarity.~~

sympathy & to allies.
