LENGTH: ~~1200~~ Feet

British wives of Canadian Troops leave for Canada. A special train left London with a number of Canadian troops wives en route for Canada.

Scenes of Arrival at station where British Red Cross assisted in getting the families on the train. The train was equipped with a kitchen to supply hot meals. Scenes were taken on the train of families. Shots of families going aboard the ship. Again the British Red Cross gave great assistance with getting children and baggage aboard.
