EISENHOWER'S XMAS MESSAGE

we asked you men to meet me at this spot today so that I can be perfectly dia. certain of saying Merry Xmas, to ine man, one solitor, one airman from each of the United States, France and the British Empire. / I want you to do me a favour, it is impossible for me to get to see every fighting man in this great Allied force so I want you men to tell your comrades everywhere that I should like to thank each one of them in personally for the great Xmas present they've given to the United SINING Nations. Since June 6th you manyhave won one of the great military victories of all times together with our great Russian allies you have brought this workd right up to the gates of the last German city. CITADE hitting Every shell we fire every bomb we drep is now KENNINK on German territory. CUTINS hopeful SV A year ago there are few of us who have been so KAIDINI as to have foreseen this very great accomplishment. I want to thank you men for the magnificent Xmas present you have given to the United Nations. Speaking of the people of the United Nations I should like to say thank you men. For you there have been no Xmas holidays but with all of us both here and at home working every minute all the time we shall XMMM see that the New Year will bring even greater victories than have 1944. Now I should like first to speak say to the American boys. Scu We are a long ways from home men and we are not going to have any particularly wine all together it does give us a chance and pince w joyous Xmas this to send IN greetings to the folks at home and I am going to ask one of you men waters greeting to the people back in the United States which one of you to send 3 (American boys speaks) will do it. I would like to daxitX HIE send that message up to you all keep HARK my equipment across and by the end of sir Merry next year we will all be back together again and Eisenhower | You step back let me see the British boys. This country KD mine has been partners for three long years in this war this is the best seen yet and less hope that when the next one comes around we will all be back I' going to the New Year's with our own people and WANK / ask one of you men to send WHATXWAXEs and and greetings to your people at home this time lets pick the sailor. (sailorsspeaks) C4 acry I would like to wish all you people at home a Mery Xmas this year and keep on sending ue the shells and maybe the year after this we will all enjoy xmas together SCH SOLDIER Yes.
