Toronto has had it worse than the Straits of Dover; arctic gales and the blizzard for seventy years. That's before the war.

The city was ice-conditioned for day. Public transport was held up till the snow ploughs bulldozed a way through.

American adpts the rocket-firing plane. Impressed by the R.A.F. rocket-Typhoons the U.S., fitted the apparatus to some of its own fighters.

Heavy-armoured tanks were hit in a 300-mile-an hour diving demonstration. One more way to stop the German Royal Tigers.

Macarthur's invasion of Luzon, main Philippine island, good well. As these pictures reach us the Americans are driving on Lamila, the capital. Filmed here is the outflanking landing on Leyte; which preceded the assault on Luzon.

(deadJap) Thousands of Japs died in a vain defence of Leyte. When U.S. victory was assured Macarthur himself congratulated General Krueger, leader of the attack.
