DR. ~~XXXXXXXX~~ BENES INTERVIEW

1. SV

I am soon going back to the homeland I have not seen for more than ~~XXXX~~ <sup>six</sup> years, What it is it like in Czechoslovakia, ~~XXXXXX~~ half my country is free but the other half is in the hands of the Germans, ~~XXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXXX~~ <sup>THEY MAY DO A GREAT DEAL OF HARM</sup> before they are at ~~XXXXX~~ last driven out.

2. SCU

But their days are numbered, they are numbered ~~XXXXXX~~ because German might has been overcome by the tremendous allies will to victory.

During the ~~XXXX~~ long months of my stay here in Britain as your guest I came to know how strong you are in courage, firmness and resolution. I knew London during the air raids of 1940 and 1941 as well as during the flying bomb attacks of last summer. The enemy could break your buildings but not your spirit.

3. Same lens as above.

During my visit to the United States and Canada in 1943 I could see for myself something of the tremendous American war effort. In huge plants and factories of the new world I saw tanks and airplanes being made in preparation for the assault on the fortress of Europe. I found warm sympathy for Czechoslovakia and everywhere I went.

4. CU.

The spirit of Britain and American the spirit of Russia and the spirit of all the ~~XXXX~~ other countries which loved freedom has triumphed over the Nazis. I go back with gratitude in my heart and I also go back with the knowledge that my own country will never forget what you have done for Czechoslovakia//and for the cause of freedom throughout the world. With ~~XXXX~~ you as our friends and allies Czechoslovakia will do all she can to promote ~~XXXXXXXX~~ <sup>concord</sup> and peace in the difficult/<sup>years</sup> which lie ahead of us all.

5. Same lens as above.

~~XXXXXXXXXX~~ Same as above not as good
