

TRIBUTE TO PRESIDENT

It was ~~in~~ St. Paul's, standing majestically above the ravages of war, that the king of England headed the ~~the~~ <sup>war's</sup> tribute ~~paid by his country~~ to President Roosevelt.

Never before has the death of a foreign statesman so deeply ~~affected~~ <sup>moved</sup> us. ~~Many thousands~~ <sup>Millions</sup> of people feel as though one of their own family had died. General Doolittle and the former Home Fleet Commander, Admiral ~~Tommy~~ Tovey were ~~among~~ among early arrivals.... Sir Charles and Lady Portal.

(Crowd) Londoners saw the Lord Mayor greet Ambassador Winant and Admiral Stark, two great servants of the Republic, two friends of the man who was its head.

~~The Prime Minister was accompanied by his daughter. He too has lost a friend, a partner in the achieving of victory.~~

~~Their Majesties and Princess Elizabeth were then conducted into the Cathedral.~~

The Prime Minister was accompanied by his daughter. He too has lost a friend, a partner in the achieving of victory.

Four Kings and two Queens were among the hundreds who paid homage to the dead President. It was a heartfelt tribute to one of the great ones of the earth.

King Peter of Yugoslavia, ~~Crown Prince Olaf of Norway, and King George of Greece~~ ~~paid royal homage.~~ and King Haakon ~~represented~~ <sup>represented</sup>

~~and~~ <sup>millions</sup>

The President is dead. Long live the President. At the White House Mr. Harry Truman was sworn in. He takes office at a critical time in the history of the world.
