EXTINCTION CONFRONTS THE JAPS.

Most appropriately latest film reports of the invasion of Borneo co-incide with the staggering news that the first atomic bomb has been dropped on Japan. realised that the choice was surrender or annhilation.

Macarthur, who may not have to lead an invasion of Japan after all, saw the gallant Australians successfully There was very little resistance. The land on Borneo. Japa used the tactics that helped them to resist so long on Okinawa and kept their main defences inland. O OHW HITEOU

(after machine gun) Catching up with the enemy the Australians burned them out of the foxholes.

From the cilvella of Borneo the Australian assault BY PROMISES OF A UNITED INEL swept the Japanese out.
