

EISENHOWER SPEAKS AT NOTTINGHAM

1. SV EISENHOWER SPEAKING:

[Ladies and Gentlemen this moment is for me one of rare privilege.
 It is also one of ^{valued} vital opportunity. Here to this gathering I can ^{express} ~~express~~ something to you as a ^{cross} ~~most~~ section of the people of the United Nations something I would like to say to everyone of all those millions ^{that} ~~that~~ helped to destroy Nazism. They are ~~represented~~ among you [people in uniform, or were in uniform] that made up part of the army that invaded North West Africa that invaded Western Europe. To you children I would like to express my undying gratitude my admiration for the ^{part} ~~power~~ their courage and that ~~has~~
 their great ability ~~MM MMM~~ carried you to victory.]

2. SV

And now to all of you victories today are won not by mere armies navies and airforces in the field, they are won by the hearts and and minds/ ~~MMMM~~ ~~MMMM~~ sweat of the nation. You, all of you as you stayed at your lathes, at your jobs in the mines and in the fields wherever you were, you helped. With moral support and with material support, was fully equal to that what the soldiers delivered on the battlefield. To all ~~MMMM~~ of you, thank you.

[And now one word only let us make sure that that Allied ~~with~~ ^{strength} that defeated Nazism and restored the of free men shall not disappear let us stay as one, thank you (applause).]
