

The Armistice Day Ceremonies were marked for the first time with homage rendered to the bodies of 15 French war heroes, two of them women, as the bodies were laid in State at the Arc De Triomphe besides the "Unknown Soldier" of World War 1.

The Ceremony was presided by General Charles de Gaulle, not yet elected Chief of the French Government.

French troops marched around the monument and French planes flew over at low altitude.

LIST OF SCENES

At the Invalides the bodies of French patriots are brought to the Arc for the Ceremony.
The Governor of the Invalides salutes the coffins.
Different views on the way to the Etoile
Big top general views of the Arc during the different following ceremonies.
Arrival of the bodies at the Arc.
Different views of ~~XXXXXXXXXX~~ General de Gaulle
Different views of crowd and Diplomatic Corps on parade.
Other general views and semi-views of the parade, sound.

Arrival of the Algerian Delegation
Control of cards at the entrance
Arrival of General de Gaulle in civilian clothes. He is received by the President of the Chamber of Deputies.
After the Assembly, General de Gaulle leaves the Chamber.

Arrival of General de Gaulle
Arrival of the Persons Elected with General de Gaulle.
The Assembly is presided by the Senior Member of the Chamber of Deputies Mr. CUTTOLI, Deputy of Constantine.
Front view, long lens, of the Communist Party.
The Senior Deputy reads the letter of resignation of General De Gaulle.