

40,000 South Wales soccer-fans ↑ responded to the request of the Russians <sup>by sh</sup> by singing Welsh hymns at Ninian Park.

It was a little unkind of the visitors to repay ~~them~~ <sup>the</sup> ~~by~~ <sup>crowd</sup> by trouncing Cardiff to the tune of ten-one.

~~The City players presented each Russian with a silver-plated miner's lamp.~~

~~Russian Ambassador saw Cardiff kicked off.~~ That's very nearly all they did do. Moscow Dynamos ran them off their feet from the start. Great news on the Russian radio.

Here's the Dynamos' first goal. They piled up nine others before the final whistle.

~~Russians turned to Ambassador Gasser saw his countrymen continue their~~ sweep to goal after goal in the second half. Cardiff could only field a weak side, no match for the visitors either in skill or fitness.

(7 out)

A clever swerve by Moore enabled him to score Cardiff's one goal of the match. Sport helps international understanding - if that's any consolation to poor Cardiff.

✓ type in that

*

4y
subs