Helping the MM whole workd on the hard road back, as on the road to victory, is General Eisenhower. Met by his wife on arrival at Boston airport. The former Supreme Commander was in America to give a Congress committee his views on National Military training. Despite in a biting wind Boston gave him a worthy reception.

Probably as a result of this drive Mrs. Eisenhower caught phneumonia. Sympathy is world wide.

Before the Military Affairs Committee, in session to debate defence-training, reichlight Presidential message, General Eisenhower gave his testimony - in favour of maintaining efficient armed services.

MEGIAN NAZIS DISENFRANCHISED .

Then a member of the committee asked the General the there, as soldier and diplomat, he thought there was any chance of achieving lasting world peace.

in life. Fourteen month old Michael Collins, flown four thousand five hundred miles to his gather's home, was met by his grand atter. The little chap's father, not yet demobbed, is still in England. His mether died last Muly. Baby Michael was a real Thanksgiving present to the old folks. The airline hostess accompanied them home from the airport.

So the most travelled baby in the town of Stillwater came to his new home. Everybody'd sent a present. The world owes it to the motherless little mite that when he mothered grows up war will be no more than a memory of the bad old days.

PIERRE LAVALT WHEN HIS TRIAL WAS RESUMED

THIS AFTERNOONS ENTERED THE COURT WITH A BROAD SWILLE ON HIS

T: Bg: Eff: Steckman Abbott Non #24

November 16, 1945

- 1. TITLE: Bisenhower Says: "TRAIN OR PERISH"
- 2. Back to Boston from Europe comes General Eisenhower. Meeting his plane is Mrs. Eisenhower, who is promptly swept off her feet. The General is back to testify before Congress on universal military training. No celebration was planned, but a million Bostonians brave a chilling rain and stage a noisy, impromptu reception.
- 12. In Washington, General Eisenhower appears before the House Military Affairs Committee, where the problem of universal training has been under consideration since the President's message of October 23rd. After referring to its pros and cons, he says:
- 17. At this point, a member of the committee asks General Eisenhower as a military man and as a diplomat "Do you think there is any chance of effectuating a lasting world peace?"