

1. LV VERNON BARTLETT SEATED ON SETTEE (SILENT OR VOICE) 8

2. CU VERNON BARTLETT SPEAKS:

You know what's really been useful about this Assembly is that for weeks these delegates from so many different countries have been meeting day after day talking over their problems, finding out how they can, how they can fit their needs in with those of others, making compromises, accepting the views of the majority, reminding themselves and each other that problems of food, trade and so on can't be settled by one government alone. 48.

3. SCU VERNON BARTLETT SPEAKS:

We hadn't expected the Security Council to get busy so soon, actually as you know it's been working day after day and night after night and distracting everybody's attention from the work of the Assembly itself. ~~Of course it is, it is ~~unpleasant to see Mr. Vishinsky and Mr. Bevin quarrelling at the moment but when it's very depressing.~~~~ 37.

4. CU VERNON BARTLETT SPEAKS:

And I wonder whether even Mr. Bevin and Mr. Vishinsky don't feel a little more friendly to each other now, than they did before the whole show began, at any rate, I sincerely hope so, because if the great powers are not going to work together, then there won't be much use in all this machinery. 32.
