WALES TROUNSE ENGLAND AT TWICKENHAM

TONS WAS WORTH LAST DOOL A ROYAL COMPLETEN WAS A DEVICE FOR SAYING NO TO EVERY CLAIM THAT MIGHT BE MADE AT ONE GO.

Smarting under the mempry of the resounding defeat at Cardiff Wales came to Twickenham determined to wipe out that blach stain. Tanner, captain and scrum half, was back in the side after war service and his inspiration worked wonders. The Welshmen were superior all round, though England nearly scrozed near the end of the first half.

THE PUBLIC . DECLARED MR BROWN, WAS FIRMLY AGAI (JUOTE)

(af crd) Second half began with the score sheet still blank, but the 45,000 spectators thrilled as Tanner got the ball from the scrum, passed to T.R. Evans, received the ball back and flung himself over the line. The kick failed.

(3 out)

Wales hung on to their lead and thoroughly deserved to win.

BRITISH AND SEEEK DELEGATES AND LOOK FORMARD WITH SOMFIDENCE

BENCORATIO GOVERNMENT WOULD BE INSTALLED IN GREECH AND WOILD

MR MAKIN: PRESIDENT OF THE COUNCIL! SPEAKING AS AUSTRAL!

" IN SIVING OUR DECISION WE HAVE TO ASK OURSELVES AS TO WHETHER THE GORPLAINT BEFORE US HAS BEEN JUSTIFIED" HE SAID V MY ANSMER IS "NO MISSUPPORT THE U.S. PROPOSAL THAT

THERE IS NO THREAT TO INTERNATIONAL PEACE AND SECURITYL WE SHARE

B. 2. PM. ADD. SECURITY COUNCIL.