

~~AMERICAN DOG SHOW~~

NEW YORK

BIGGEST DOG SHOW IN U.S. DRAWS CROWDS

class

There was a full house at Madison Square Garden for the famous Westminster Dog Show. Two thousand six hundred ^{top} animals, representing every ^{known} breed under the sun, from midget-sized lap-dogs up to noble-looking fellows, handsome enough for film stars....The old English sheep dog was a great favourite....There were fine looking Russian wolfhounds and that incurable pessimist the bloodhound.... Most popular was the Boxer, ~~the~~ favourite ^{American} pet of the ^{young} day. The little chap must think his big pal's an air-raid shelter.

Specially designed by nature to fit a lady's handbag, the Mexican Chihuahua.

And From the same country ^{comes} the Mexican Hairless, with a hair-do.

How do you face the Crisis, bulldog? You keep your chin, ^{up,} chin up, chin up.

Steckman
Connolly
#50

February 14, 1947

1. TITLE: WORLD'S GREATEST DOG SHOW!
2. Madison Square Garden goes to the dogs! Dogs -- all breeds, sizes shapes and colors - arrive for the World's Series of Dogdom -- New York's 71st annual Westminster Show! And such primping to get these canine aristocrats ready for the judging ring! Ah! KEN-EL No. 5!
12. Now, to business! A record 2,600 dogs are judged - nearly a hundred different breeds! The noble Great Dane!
17. Peekaboo! I'm an English sheep dog!
18. Stately Russian wolf hounds - followed by "Old Sad Eyes" -- the Blood hound!
20. Dignity, beauty, sporting blood - the English setter!
22. Current rage, as pets, in America - the Boxer!
24. There's a wide selection in models - including this handy "pocket size" - a sweater girl, at that! Wyy, we've even got a Mexican Hairless with a hair-dó!
29. Bully show, wot? Carry on! Chin up! And - pip! Pip!