

REBECCA HAVERS CELEBRATES 107th BIRTHDAY

~~Birth~~day greetings to old Mrs. Havers were brought by the Mayor of West Ham on her 107th birthday. The Mayor was rewarded with a good kiss.

Other old ladies who live at the Central Homes, Leytonstone, were invited to the birthday party. Mrs. Havers is the oldest woman in England. To blow out the 107 candles required all the breath the Mayor could muster after being kissed.

The Mayoress gave old Rebecca a hand in cutting the 22-lb cake, which ~~was large~~ enough for all the old dears present to have a good slice. ~~Mrs Havers was born the year Queen Victoria got married, so she's seen quite a few changes.~~
But just as it ~~was~~ 107 years ago, fruit cake goes down very well on your birthday. ~~mm~~
