

| COUNTRY | TOWN | EVENT | LIB.NO. | ISSUE NO. | DATE |
|---------|--------------|---|---------|-----------|-----------|
| England | Fen District | FENS AN INLAND SEA: More than one hundred square miles of Fenland is submerged. Troops and prisoners of War make desperate bid to close gap in banks of the Ouse. | 16055 | 1676 | Mar. 1947 |

G.V. showing gap in New Bedford River Canal flooded area in F.G. S.V. Pan water rushing thru' open gap. L.V. Pan Water rushing thru' gap pan to flooded farmland. L.V. Flood water surrounding farm and bungalow. S.V. Flood water around bungalow. G.V. Flooded farmland pan to farm buildings. Travel shot flood water in farmyards. L.V. Farmers putting up temporary bridge over gap pan water rushing thru' gap under bridge. C.U. flood water rushing under temporary bridge. G.V. Pan British troops and POW's helping unload Bailey Bridge sections which is to span gap of River Ouse. S.V. British soldier and POW carrying section of Bailey Bridge. G.V. Assembling sections of Bailey. G.V. Flooded area. L.V. Flooded area and open gap of canal. S.V. Water rushing thru' open gap. C.U. Ditto. G.V. Sunset shot over flooded Fen District.

130ft. 35m.