

FLASH: GOLF

Palm Beach Amateur-versus-Pro Tournament featured two famous Englishmen. One was the Duke of Marlborough, the other the Duke of Windsor, now able to devote more time to the game than in the days when he was Prince of Wales.

Main attraction, however, was the play. Both in the amateur and professional rank the competition produced a high standard.

Playing off eighteen nowadays the Duke did not expect to win, ^{as} a good sportsman as always he took the rough with the smooth.

Andrews-Kees
Abbott
GOLF EXCL.
#59

March 18, 1947

1. TITLE: HEADLINE PEOPLE!

SUB: WHO'S WHO IN GOLF!

2. Palm Beach, Florida. High Society and top golfers in an Amateur-Professional Tournament! Chris Dunphy, tournament chairman, leads an impressive "Who's Who!" Here's Ellsworth Vines. In this contest, world famous social and business figures are paired with the world's best golf professionals. Polo star Mike Phipps, for example, with golf's own, Belting Ben Hogan!
8. From England, the Duke of Marlborough.....
9. And, His Royal Highness, the Duke of Windsor.
11. The Duke, plays with an 18-stroke handicap. ~~Manhattan~~ Tough!
13. Competition all the way! With Lady Luck smiling, or frowning, on amateurs and professionals alike, it's class that counts. And winning combination for the mixed tournaments: Ben Hogan and Mike Phipps.

SUB: YEAR'S BEST ACTRESS

2. Hollywood picks the year's best actress for the Academy Award. On hand are Los Angeles Mayor Barron, with Academy President Jean Hersholt. Margaret O'Brien and Dorothy Lamour. Alan Ladd and wife, Sue Carol. Now, Ray Milland, last year's Oscar winner, with Olivia de Havilland, chosen for her role in Paramount's To Each His Own.