

ATHENS MOURNS KING

Through the streets of the Greek capital, in solemn ~~state~~ procession, the body of King George of the Hellenes was borne to the cathedral to lie in state. The new King Paul, ^{Headed by} the body of mourners. With him marched his little seven year old son Constantine, who is now the Crown Prince. Paul, forty five years of age, is ten years younger than his late brother. Archbishop Damaskinos was ~~a commanding~~ ^{an impressive} figure. It will be remembered that he acted as Regent until the plebiscite recalled ~~King George~~ ^{the monarch in Greece.}

King Paul comes to the throne at a difficult time, ~~in the~~ ~~state of his native country.~~ The Western World wishes him a peaceful reign in the difficult years ~~ahead.~~ ^{facing the historic}

Paul Paul

[Handwritten notes and signatures, including "Paul Paul" and "facing the historic" written vertically.]