RAF SHOW ATTLEE LATEST WARPLANES

The Prime Minister was the guest of the Royal Air Force at Halton Airfield, Bucks. Marshal of the R.A.F. Lord Tedder escorted him, and Mr. Noel Baker and the French Chief of Air Staff General Piollet. The visitors were invited to see a demonstration of several types of aircraft on which the R.A.F. is concentrating today. Meteors

Vampires

~~streaked past, at nearly six hundred miles an hour; Vampires touched four hundred and fifty.~~

Paratroops were dropped from less than seven hundred feet. The ~~technique~~ technique of supply air-delivery was well demonstrated by the dropping of a field gun and a jeep to tow it.

The helicopter, now much used by Transport Command, nearly stole the show. In all ways the R.A.F. demonstrated that it continues to be very much on its toes.
