

TRIPLETS

A convention for triplets was held in New Jersey. There was a contest for the most photogenic three. No age limit. The Sinolair Sisters, twenty-one, held the youngest, aged eighteen months. The winners last year presented paper crowns to Edward, Dennis and Michael Magid, who carried off the triplet Oscar on this occasion. There's no news yet ~~(1 out)~~ of any Hollywood contract.

That part of the business over the pace of the proceedings was quickened up.

Everybody couldn't win but when you're young it's tough being a loser, - not to say odd man out.

1. TITLE: BOY, BOY, BOY MEETS GIRL, GIRL, GIRL!
2. Boy, boy, boy meets girl, girl, girl! At this New Jersey Triplets Contest, the oldest entries hold the youngest!
4. The idea here is to find the most photogenic 3-child parlay. And gee! Triplets have three times as much fun as - gops! Correction, please!
8. The Rogers triplets, last year's winners, lead the gang and our triple-threat cameraman a merry chase. But he finally catches the winners -- Edward, Dennis and Michael Magid - for the coronation ceremonies. Behold! The World of Tomorrow - in triplicate! Even here, it's true - "uneasy lies the head that wears the crown!"
13. Edward, or Dennis or Michael, maybe? Dedward, Eickel, Menace!
Aw nuts! Hi'ya - JOE!!
