

MOROCCAN WEAVERS CELEBRATE ANCIENT FESTIVAL

Since the dawn of history the weavers of Khenifra, renowned for their carpets and cushions, have gone every year to the Casbah Mosque to display their best products in a religious festival. The origin of the dance of the cushions, which is the highlight of the ~~festival~~ <sup>proceedings</sup> is lost

~~in the mists of Pagan Africa. Centuries before the French occupation of Morocco buyers came from many parts of Europe to bid for the wares of the famous craftsmen of Khenifra.~~

<sup>Times</sup> in the mists of Pagan ~~Africa~~. Centuries before the French occupation of Morocco buyers <sup>e ✓ kg</sup> came from many parts of Europe to bid for the wares of the famous craftsmen of Khenifra.

--
(GV) The dances too go back to pagan times. To the rhythm of the tom-tom move the muscles of the tum-tum. 3 (after clapping) If you want to buy a carpet why not go to Khenifra and have a Rumba lesson at the same time.